

Please look at the "HAM" radio operators and the communications they do and can handle. With BPL there is the potential for interference making many frequencies unusable even the public service communications could be affected. Look at what ARRL has to say they have researched it very well.

Thank you so much
]Rogers Albertson
Ham op WA4BPL